BERT FRANK MASINA TABLE LAMP

The Masina Table Lamp combines gleaming machined brass detailing with a large opal glass shade that casts a warm, glowing light. Simple with classic proportions, its Brass upstand with a matte-lacquered brass base exemplifies simplicity and sophistication. Details make the difference, and the machined brass base combined with the white matte lacquered finish imitates the effect of a halo of light for a refined, yet heavenly presence.

3. CAMPANA BROTHERS/LASVIT SUSHI CEILING SCONCE

Lasvit, the Czech design house specialized in glass and light, has transformed Campana Brothers' classic Sushi collection. Originally made from offcuts of carpet or rubber, Lasvit has reimagined it as an elegant glass lighting suitable for low-ceiling interiors. The new Sushi collection will be unveiled during Milan Design Week at Euroluca. The collaboration between the two creative voices of Lasvit and the Campana Brothers has shown a new dimension of a design piece transformed through a different material. The Campana Brothers' playful Sushi collection has been elevated to a sophisticated feel with the transparency and organicity of glass. The irregular surface that covers its concave shape brings depth and refinement to the piece.
