

PEOPLE

Phillip Dickinson Into lighting

Into Lighting has announced that Phillip Dickinson has joined the award-winning lighting design consultancy. Based at the firm's Borough design studio in London, he will be working on a wide range of lighting projects that span all sectors of both interior and exterior lighting. Dickinson previously worked for lighting consultancy Pritchard Themis.

Roberto Granda Chelsom

Roberto Granda has joined Chelsom's international sales team, expanding the company's presence in the Middle East, and is now Chelsom's representative for the UAE. He is based in Dubai and has over 18 years' experience in the contract hospitality market. The new appointment accompanies a significant growth for Chelsom within the UAE and a series of high-profile hospitality projects.

Darin Fowler Anolis Lighting

Darin Fowler joins LED lighting manufacturer Anolis as national business development manager in the US. Fowler will be based in New York. Previously general manager and national sales manager at Kreon, he has nearly 10 years' experience in architectural and entertainment lighting. Czech Republic-based Anolis is the architectural division of Robe Lighting.

Ilya Pukhaev Chelsom

Chelsom has appointed Ilya Pukhaev as its exclusive business development manager for Russia. This new role will be based in Moscow, and comes after a significant increase in sales for Chelsom throughout the country. Pukhaev has worked with the lighting design and manufacturing company on a part-time basis for more than a year as a sales agent.

Musa Unmehopa Zhaga Consortium

The Zhaga Consortium has appointed Musa Unmehopa to succeed outgoing Menno Treffers as secretary general. Unmehopa has been involved in international standardisation across several industries for almost 20 years, during which time he served in various chair positions and directorships. He is on the board of directors at both ZigBee Alliance and EMerge Alliance.

EVENTS July-November 2014

2 July Project catalyst

A peer-to-peer mentoring programme run by Women in Building Services Engineering aimed at helping women within the industry get ahead. The free event is being held in central London and this month focusses on mastering the work-life balance.
tinyurl.com/peer2peer-WIBSE

17 July A1145 Lighting and Energy Efficiency

This one-day CIBSE course will cover the key considerations and requirements for energy-efficient lighting solutions in buildings. Lou Bedocs will cover regulations, technologies, design tools and lighting practice.
tinyurl.com/cibselighting

9 July LIA and ICEL Technical Forum

The LIA Technical Forum, in its 16th year, gives members the chance to hear and discuss the implications of new or changing regulations, directives or technical standards and practices. The informative discussion takes place at the Manor Hotel in Stratford.
tinyurl.com/LIAtech

29 July How to be Brilliant: At Daylighting

The How to be Brilliant series continues with Arfon Davies, associate director at Arup Lighting, helping you master daylighting. The seminars are aimed at lighting newbies and cover areas untouched by formal training.
tinyurl.com/ILD-daylighting

15 July LR&T Symposium: Better Metrics for Better Lighting

This event to raise awareness about how to improve the metrics used in lighting design is aimed at lighting designers, equipment manufacturers and those who help develop lighting standards and guidelines.
tinyurl.com/SLMetrics

9-11 November IALD Enlighten Europe

Including seminars on art, science and professional tools, this event will emphasise quality lighting education and networking opportunities. Held in Berlin, Germany, it is open to designers, architects, specifiers, manufacturers, educators and students.
tinyurl.com/EnlightenEurope